Algowid Acceptable Usage Policy

Effective date: 29-Jul-2024

General Acceptable Use Policy

This AUP governs the use of Algowid's hosting service. Violation of this AUP may result in suspension or termination of your service. In the event of a dispute between you and Algowid regarding the interpretation of this AUP, Algowid's interpretation, in its reasonable commercial judgment, shall govern.

The following is the entire Acceptable User Policy ("AUP") agreement between Algowid and the personal or corporate account holder. Algowid provides managed web hosting and domain name service. Algowid has certain legal and ethical responsibilities consisting with the use of its servers and equipment involved in these services. Algowid's general policy is to act as a provider of Internet presence. Algowid reserves the rights to suspend or cancel a customer's access to any or all services provided by Algowid when we decide that the account has been inappropriately used.

What is Appropriate Usage?

Algowid web hosting solution has specifically been designed to serve the web hosting needs of small and independently owned and operated businesses and organizations throughout the world. Since you will be hosting your website with several other clients on our servers in a virtual community, our offerings are really not intended to support enterprise level or large company requirements. For that, we recommend purchasing at least a virtual private server, cloud or dedicated server solution.

Algowid hosting is a shared web hosting service, which ultimately means a number of customers' websites are hosted within the same server environment. To ensure that our hosting is first-class, reliable, and available to all customers within that server community, an individual customer's website usage cannot adversely affect the performance of other customers' sites. We monitor our servers 24/7/365 and in no way can one customer adversely affect the performance of that server. If this happens, we will take preventative measures to ensure that the entire community is protected.

Lastly, our web hosting service is intended to host websites, not backup or storage facility for users' data. Using your web hosting account primarily as an online storage space for archiving electronic files and images is strictly prohibited. Our servers are for web hosting usage only.
